Modest Fashion Model

Table of contents

Hello.

I'm Kautar Oulad El Haj

I am active in modest fashion modelling, where I combine creativity with a commitment to representation and empowerment. For me, fashion is not only about style, but also about telling stories of diversity and cultural expression. Alongside my work as a model, I bring experience as a consultant in diversity, education, and ethics, which allows me to approach projects with depth and social awareness. I believe modelling can be a platform for dialogue, inspiration, and inclusive narratives.

About Me

With a background in educational pedagogy, I work as a theological and pedagogical consultant, teacher, and expert in interfaith dialogue. My daily work is rooted in fostering understanding, ethics, and inclusion across education and society. Stepping into modest fashion modelling, I carry this same responsibility: using representation and cultural expression to challenge today's narrow beauty ideals. For me, modelling is about but also an activist way to shape a more diverse and authentic narrative of beauty.

Personal Skills

✦ Skilled in dialogue and debate, I create space for diverse voices to be heard. My background in pedagogy and ethics helps me approach discussions with both clarity and empathy. I see every exchange as a chance to build understanding.

✦ With expertise in interfaith dialogue and education, I bring sharp analysis and open-minded communication to complex issues. These skills allow me to connect people across differences. They also inspire the way I approach creativity and representation in fashion.
